Are you connected to us online?

The church has a facebook page and a sermon blog, where you can find regular updates on upcoming events and weekly posts of the text versions of Pastor Alan's sermon. "Like" us on Facebook to get announcements on upcoming events at PBPC! Links to both our Facebook page and our sermon blog are available on our webpage: www.pbpres.org.

Want to broaden your horizons and activities? We are always looking for volunteers to help out here in the Church Office.

The work is easy, answering phones and assisting with mail - and (we think!) the environment is fun and friendly. The morning hours are from 9am to noon; the afternoon is 1pm to 3pm. If you think you might be interested, please contact the office.

Vacation time is here, but, church expenses continue and never take a vacation. We would be most grateful if we could receive your pledge before you leave. Blessings, have a wonderful time.

Just a reminder: If you think you've recently lost something here on the PBPC campus, come stop by the church office to check our lost and found!

This will be their final Sunday with us after 7 years of sharing in our ministry. Thomas has been accepted into a Doctoral program at Duke University, in North Carolina and Maggie will be starting a new job. We will celebrate their ministry with us and have an opportunity to express our gratitude. A basket will be available for those of you who would like to make a financial gift to Thomas and Maggie. We give thanks to God for bringing them to our church.

Ken Bailey Video Series July 2nd and 14th

The "Women in the New Testament" video series continues this month as Dr. Kenneth Bailey gives his insights into the place of women in the Greco-Roman world and how the Apostle Paul's letters dealt with those traditions. Also, 1 Corinthians 14 tells women to be silent in church and 1 Timothy 2 has been understood to deny women any authority over men. Bailey shows how these two texts can be harmonized with the practice of the early church where many leading women were disciples, teachers, deacons, prophets, and apostles. Identical one-hour sessions will be held on Wednesday the 2nd at 7:00 p.m. and on Monday the 14th at 2:00 p.m. in Founders' Hall.
