WANTED: SOUND TEAM TECHNICIANS

We are looking for a few new technicians to help with the sound booth tasks on Sunday mornings. No prior experience is required; we will provide all necessary training. This is a rewarding position because you enhance the congregation's worship experience by adjusting the sound level of the pastor and other speakers, and the music, during the service. If you have an interest in learning the basics of an audio mixer, you can do this! Please contact Barry Dickens at 858-254-4607 to get more information or to volunteer to be trained.

Pledge Envelope Boxes: There are still some of you who have not stopped by the office to pick up your box of pledge envelopes! Please make sure to stop by and see if yours is still there! By picking up your box in the office, you are saving the church postage fees (which are around $3 per box!). Thank you!

Do you have a few hours a week free that you'd like to spend helping the church? Our church office is in need of volunteers! Office volunteers help our staff by manning the front desk, answering incoming phone calls and assisting with mail, all while enjoying a fun and social environment. Morning volunteers have a three hour shift (9am—noon) and afternoon volunteers have a two hour shift (1pm—3pm). If you'd like to help, contact our office manager, Meri Murch, by phone (858-273-9312 ext. 117) or email (Meri@pbpres.org).

Just a reminder: If you think you've recently lost something here on the PBPC campus, come stop by the church office to check our lost and found!

Planning Ahead

Ken Bailey Video Class—February 8th

Dr. Kenneth Bailey continues this six-part video series by discussing the way "Jesus Reveals Himself As Messiah." What does Jesus Himself say about who He is? The Messiah was expected to 1) become a political figure, drive the Romans out, and reestablish the kingdom of David, 2) cause a tremendous economic surge, and 3) demonstrate who He is by some great public miracle. It is interesting to note that these three items are exactly how Satan tempted Jesus in the wilderness. Jesus starts by asking His disciples who they think He is. He then turns to the tradition of the Jews, quotes Isaiah 61, reinterprets it, and in the process makes an affirmation about Himself. Dr. Bailey is not amazed that Jesus ended up on a cross, but is amazed that He was able to keep teaching this way for three years. A one-hour session will be held on Monday the 8th at 2pm in Founders' Hall. Everyone is most welcome.

Adult Education

The PB Women's Bible Study will be meeting Wednesday, February 10th, at 10:00am in Calvin Hall. Pastor Alan continues his presentation on the basic teachings of our Christian faith. ALL ladies of the congregation are invited and welcome! The talks are interesting, informative and it's a great time to enjoy the fellowship of members and friends. Come join us.

Sunday Morning Bible Study, every 2nd and 4th Sunday of the month (NEXT on 2/14/16) at 9am! We will meet in Knox Chapel, and will be going through the book of Mark. Led by Grant Kay, Director of Young Adult Ministry, and open to all who wish to spend some time in the Word.

It is our tradition here at PB Presbyterian to celebrate communion on the first Sunday of every month. We now offer gluten-free bread in addition to traditional bread. Communion will be served today, Sunday, February 7th, in our morning worship service.
