It is a joy to share the journey of life with them.

Planning Ahead

Blanket and Tools for Hope - Special Offering

It has been a tradition of our church to honor our mothers by giving to the Blanket and Tools for Hope program. Our offering goes to the life-saving work of Church World Service at home and around the world as they help families recover from disaster and displacement. CWS also helps these people gain the resources and develop the skills necessary to build — or rebuild — sustainable lives and communities. Please bring your gift for this special offering on May 8th. Thanks for your generous support. Your Mission & Outreach Team

"Jesus Interprets His Own Person"— May 4th and 9th

Dr. Kenneth Bailey concludes his comparison of Psalm 23 with Luke 15 in part 5 of this six-part video series as he looks at the person of Jesus and who He presents Himself to be. There is great evidence that the three parables told by Jesus in Luke 15 were created out of the 23rd Psalm. Dr. Bailey has condensed the similarities into seven points of comparison, ranging from the shepherd image to the "table prepared for me in the presence of my enemies." Jesus was saying to the Pharisees that he had come to find the lost sheep, those whom they had lost by not doing their duty, and yet they were complaining about Him. Jesus is saying in these parables that He is the presence of God among us. Dr. Bailey also makes the point that God acts in mercy "for His Name's sake" because He is who He is and can do no other, while we are the beneficiaries of His nature. Identical one-hour sessions will be held on Wednesday the 4th at 7:00pm and Monday the 9th at 2:00pm in Founders' Hall. Everyone is most welcome.

It is our tradition here at PB Presbyterian to celebrate communion on the first Sunday of every month. We now offer gluten-free bread in addition to traditional bread. Communion will be served today, Sunday, May 1st, in our morning worship service.
