

Planning Ahead

Race and Reconciliation Workshop at PBPC 9:00AM to 5:00PM; Saturday, June 04, 2016

The goal of this workshop is to provide an opportunity to affirm our diversity, and seek a common ground through dialogue. Dr. Henry Payne, who professionally facilitates the workshop, is a human resources and organizational development consultant with many years of experience. He has conducted training workshops on race and reconciliation in South Africa, New York City and San Diego. Pre-registration is required by May 21st! The church office has brochures with details and pre-registration procedures.

Adult Education

Sunday Morning Bible Study, every 2nd and 4th Sunday of the month (TODAY, NO MEETING on 5/22) at 9am! We will meet in Knox Chapel, and will be going through the book of Mark. Led by Grant Kay, Director of Young Adult Ministry, and open to all who wish to spend some time in the Word.

Today at PB Pres May 8, 2016

The flowers under the cross this morning are given by the Staunton Family to the glory of God and to all the mothers in our congregation.

Sunday School Schedule

Sunday school classes for children and youth will be held during the church service after the children's message. Young elementary students (approx. 4-7 years old) will go to class weekly, older elementary students and youth will go on the 2nd and 4th Sundays of the month. There is also childcare every Sunday for babies and toddlers in the Infant Room of the education building from 10-11:15am. Please enter through the back door from the parking lot.

Please Pray

In Skilled Nursing: Dawn Siskowic (Anne Bay's daughter) treating an open wound on leg. In Rehab: Mary Knost building strength after removal of body fluid buildup. She is at La Jolla Cove. At Home: David Sutherland recovering from pneumonia and low blood pressure. Dolores Shoemaker is on hospice care. Larry Cox is healing from hernia surgery. Leah Petzen is healing from final breast rebuild after cancer surgery. Lynda Wohletz's biopsy in mid-May to determine if bladder requires removal. Reva Greim is on palliative care. Rosalie Kostanzer continues to take alternative treatments for her cancer. Sue Cornell is challenged with two leaking heart valves, fluid retention in her legs and a wound on her leg that is slowly healing. The cardioversion she had Tuesday did not put her Afib back into a normal rhythm. However, the other scan they did showed her clear of blood clots.

Blanket & Tools for Hope - Special Offering

It has been a tradition of our church to honor our mothers by giving to the Blanket and Tools for Hope program. Our offering goes to the life-saving work of Church World Service at home and around the world as they help families recover from disaster and displacement. CWS also helps these people gain the resources and develop the skills necessary to build — or rebuild — sustainable lives and communities. We will be collecting donations for this special offering today, May 8th. Thanks for your generous support. Your Mission & Outreach Team

"Jesus Interprets His Own Person"

Tomorrow, Monday, May 9th

Dr. Kenneth Bailey concludes his comparison of Psalm 23 with Luke 15 in part 5 of this six-part video series as he looks at the person of Jesus and who He presents Himself to be. There is great evidence that the three parables told by Jesus in Luke 15 were created out of the 23rd Psalm. Dr. Bailey has condensed the similarities into seven points of comparison, ranging from the shepherd image to the "table prepared for me in the presence of my enemies." Jesus was saying to the Pharisees that he had come to find the lost sheep, those whom they had lost by not doing their duty, and yet they were complaining about Him. Jesus is saying in these parables that He is the presence of God among us. Dr. Bailey also makes the point that God acts in mercy "for His Name's sake" because He is who He is and can do no other, while we are the beneficiaries of His nature. A one-hour session will be held on Monday 5/9 at 2pm in Founders' Hall. Everyone is most welcome.

Lunch Bunch, Next Sunday, May 15th, following morning worship service—everyone join together for lunch and fellowship at 11:15am at Café Athena Restaurant, across Garnet Street.

It is our tradition here at PB Presbyterian to celebrate communion on the first Sunday of every month. We now offer gluten-free bread in addition to traditional bread.
