Planning Ahead

Race and Diversity Forum: On the Wednesday nights of October from 6:45-8:15pm Point Loma Community Presbyterian Church (2128 Chatsworth Blvd, San Diego 92107) will be hosting discussions in the spirit of our Race and Reconciliation Workshops in their Chapel. During this forum, we will learn about the history between black and white in this nation and in the church. We will discuss the definition of racism and our role in it. We will look at the biblical perspective of diversity. And we will attempt to come up with thoughtful solutions to racism in our areas of influence. Ken Bailey Video Class—October 11

Dr. Bailey continues his series on the events surrounding Jesus' birth by looking at the genealogy of Mary as well as the type of man that Joseph was. In the genealogy, five women are mentioned, some of outstanding character and others of questionable repute. This gives us some idea of the kind of people that the Messiah came to save. In the scripture, Joseph is called a "just man." This usually means a fair person, one who applies the rules equally. However, the text says that Joseph is a just man who, before God, put aside the Law of Moses which called for stoning Mary because of her pregnancy out of wedlock. According to the text, God's justice is compassion, tenderness, and concern for the weak, the downtrodden, the outcast, and those in need of help. Joseph's stature is clear, having in him great qualities of boldness, daring, courage, and strength of character. The one-hour session will be held in Founders' Hall on Tuesday the 11th at 12:00 noon. The session begins with a 30-minute video followed by a discussion of Dr. Bailey's insights. Everyone is welcome to come and enjoy the insights that Ken Bailey offers.

The PB Women's Bible Study will be meeting the second Wednesday, October 12, at 10AM in Calvin Hall. ALL women of the congregation are welcome. Pastor Alan has much to impart, and we invite you to attend and enjoy the information, discussion and companionship of fellow members and friends. Please Come - We look forward to seeing you there!!

Lunch Bunch, SUNDAY, OCTOBER 16TH, following morning worship service— everyone join together for lunch and fellowship at 11:15am at Café Athena Restaurant, across Garnet Street.

ALERT! After inspecting Rooms 207 and 204 in the Education Building, the Buildings & Grounds Committee has approved removal of excess material as the accumulation presents a fire hazard. If you have anything stored in these rooms, look through the items and tag (clearly identify) the things you NEED to keep. B&G will assign space in the rooms where these items may be stored. Removal activity will begin THIS Wednesday, October 12, 2016!
