Sarah Holt writes: I apologize for the delay in getting my thank you out to you, I hope you will forgive me. When I arrived home after my fall, I was overwhelmed with the number of “gifts of love” that I found. I am so grateful to all of you who have provided food, equipment, visits, cards and calls. I have been truly blessed to have so many caring friends. Thank you, Sarah

Church Library Update

We are looking for someone with a love of books who will volunteer to update the card catalog for our church's library, which is located in the office. If you want to help, please contact Meri or Lisa in the church office.

Are you connected to us online? We have a Facebook page (<https://www.facebook.com/PBPres/>) where you can find weekly updates on upcoming events and a sneak peek at the scripture and sermon for each Sunday morning worship service! Make sure to like us on Facebook to keep up to date!

Just a reminder: If you think you've recently lost something here on the PBPC campus, come stop by the church office to check our lost and found!

Do you have a few hours a week free that you'd like to spend helping the church? Our church office is in need of volunteers! Office volunteers help our staff by manning the front desk, answering incoming phone calls and assisting with mail, all while enjoying a fun and social environment. Morning volunteers have a three hour shift (9am—noon) and afternoon volunteers have a two hour shift (1pm—3pm). If you'd like to help, contact our office manager, Meri Murch, by phone (858-273-9312 ext. 117) or email (Meri@pbpres.org).

Planning Ahead

"Jesus and His Vision of Mission"

Dr. Ken Bailey continues this video series by turning to the book of Luke to see how Jesus "edited" the words of Isaiah's prophecies into a dense diamond that reflects His own understanding of Himself and His ministry. Luke 4:16-30 is one of the most dense passages in the new Testament in terms of its understanding and answer to the Christian disciple's question, "Oh, Lord, what shall I do?" As Jesus stood up in the Temple and quoted Isaiah, He left out some phrases that the people had equated with their identity and their return from exile. They had understood that Isaiah 61 was speaking vengeance against the nations who would become subjects of the Jewish people. But Jesus was disagreeing with their politics which they had mixed with their religion. A one-hour session will be held on Tuesday, February 14th at 12:00 noon in Founders' Hall. This 30-minute DVD of Dr. Bailey's insights will help us better understand God's acts to save all people through His love and His holiness.

New Women's Evening Bible Study:

All women of all ages are invited to gather for an evening bible study on the first and third Tuesdays of each month, from 6:30-7:30pm in the church office. We will start with the book of Philippians at our first meeting on February 21st. Any questions, please call Chrissie Teeling at 619-884-3410 or email chrissiet@yahoo.com.
