Do you have a few hours a week free that you'd like to spend helping the church? Our church office is in need of volunteers! Office volunteers help our staff by manning the front desk, answering incoming phone calls and assisting with mail, all while enjoying a fun and social environment. Morning volunteers have a three hour shift (9am-noon) and afternoon volunteers have a two hour shift (1pm-3pm). If you'd like to help, contact our office manager, Meri Murch, by phone (858-273-9312 ext. 117) or email (Meri@pbpres.org).

Jerry Thonert writes: I would like to thank "our church family" for the many cards, emails, and phone calls that I received whilst recovering. I also know that your prayers have been well received and are enabling me to take one day at a time.

Joan Skinner would like to say "Thank You!" to everyone for all of the cards and prayers during her recent recovery from a broken arm.

Banner Note: The Declaration of Barmen, one of our Presbyterian Confessions, was written in 1934 by theologian and pastor Dr. Karl Barth. Barmen is a city in Germany. It is the place where the confessing church, made up of Reformed Churches wrote this declaration protesting Nazi tyranny and the effort by the state to take the role of God and control the church. It is a protest against Hitler and his National Church. Its central doctrines are the sin of idolatry and the Lordship of Jesus Christ. The swastika is crossed out and the cross of Christ is rising. The fire represents the suffering and death of those defending the true faith. The cross survives such persecution, as it rises out of the flames.
