Ken Bailey Video Series — September 12th

A new three-part series begins this month titled "Paul's Hymn to Love," based on I Corinthians, chapter 13. The first part discusses "Love and the Spiritual Gifts." Although this "love chapter" may seem out of place, Paul's "more excellent way" of faith, hope, and love is merely adding intensity to something that is already there among the spiritual gifts. He then adds that love is the greatest of them all. For those of us who may think we do not have any spiritual gifts, our Christian love reassures us that we do. On the other hand, if we seem to have some spiritual gifts but do not have love, we are just making noise, as Paul says, like banging brass or clanging cymbals. The one-hour session will be held on Tuesday the 12th at 12:00 noon in Founders' Hall. This 30-minute DVD will help us to see this very familiar chapter with greater insight beyond our traditional understanding of it. Visitors are always welcome.

After a restful summer break, the PB Women's Monthly Bible Study will be restarting Wednesday, September 13th, at 10:00am in Calvin Hall. Pastor Alan will be continuing his insightful series on the basic teachings of the Christian Faith. ALL women of the congregation are invited and welcome to attend. Come enjoy the information, spirited discussion and companionship of fellow members. We look forward to seeing you here!

Don't forget that Pastor Alan's Weekly Bible Study will start again Thursday, September 14th at 5:00pm in Founder's Hall. Now that we've all had an opportunity to re-charge our batteries, enjoying a little rest and sunshine, come join the group to hear and discuss various thought provoking portions of the bible. Everyone is welcome!
