It is our tradition here at PB Presbyterian to celebrate communion on the first Sunday of every month. All bread used for communion at PBPC is gluten-free.

Today

*The rose on the communion table is to God's glory
and in thanksgiving for His little angel, Dahlia Curie Staunton-Shaghafi,
on the day of her baptism.*

Planning Ahead

Volunteers are needed for the Graffiti Clean-Up, Saturday, April 28th, 9am to 12 noon, at PBPC, put on by Pacific Beach Town Council and PB Presbyterian Church. Volunteers will be trained and assigned an area to remove graffiti – resulting in 100's of tags being cleared all over the community. Students can earn community service hours (under 18 must have waiver signed by parent). For more information go to www.pbtowncouncil.org or contact the church office.

CCSA Hunger Walk Update: There has been a correction to the address for the CCSA Hunger Walk! Please note: the correct address for the walk starting location is 3700 Corona Oriente Road (not 700 as the flier states).

Ken Bailey Video Series—May 8th

This month Dr. Bailey turns to the parable of "The Woman in the House of Simon" where an immoral woman shows her gratitude to Jesus, the agent of God's love, by washing His feet with her tears, drying them with her hair, and anointing them with perfume. She was responding to the love she had received from Jesus earlier. Simon, who had not shown Jesus the traditional courtesies of a guest by washing His feet and giving Him a greeting kiss, had brought Jesus into his home to "put Him under the magnifying glass." The woman was compensating for Simon's mistakes. Jesus then told a parable about the depth of forgiveness which incriminated Simon's dependence on good works. Jesus then told the woman, "Your faith has saved you, go in peace." Simon's response was only resentment. A 30-minute DVD, followed by discussion, will be held on Tuesday the 8th at 12:00 noon in Founders' Hall.
